FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Beaver County Chamber of Commerce Would Like To Commend Those Who Made History – The Beaver County Chamber of Commerce would like to commend Rebecca Matsco and the Potter Township Supervisors on their historic vote on September 25, 2013 as well as provide a thank you to the Pittsburgh Regional Alliance, the Beaver County Commissioners, the Beaver County CED and our state officials for working together to make the Horsehead property as attractive as possible for Shell to build an ethane cracker plant.

All three Potter Township supervisors approved the KOEZ for the Horsehead property Wednesday night, laying out the red carpet for Shell, should they decide to build a plant in Beaver County. They approved a 22-year tax abatement providing that Shell creates 400 permanent full-time jobs and invests at least $1 billion in the area. A packed house including key attendees such as: Jim Palmer – Beaver County CED; Beaver County Chamber of Commerce; Brandon Mendoza – Allegheny Conference; Dennis Nichols – Beaver County Commissioner; and Joe Weidner – Senator Vogel’s office. There were about 50 attendees at the meeting.

Potter Township, along with many Beaver County municipalities are recognized as members of the Chamber through their participation in the regional Council of Governments.
